

W. D. Morga

Donner who has reliable and honest business methods may be the most successful in this community. He acts in good faith at the profession and the practice of the law. He is not afraid to go to see each article offered for sale is the bonafide property of the owner.

This commendable policy has won for him a warm place in the heart of the public and a responsible position among the people have learned to place in his every statement.

If by his name appears on a bill every one knows it will be one worth attending. The essential thing in preparation of a bill is to be sure that it is not connected with may have a lot of valuable things to offer (the public at auction. There even may be a great demand for the small goods that you wish to sell, but if you don't get a fair price for them, they will be a failure. That is why I refer you to this well known auctioneer, by his name appears on your state bills as the official auctioneer of the state. At the anniversary of the occasion, I will be no question about the success of your undertaking, by disposition and terms, and the price you will receive for the or the profession in which he is engaged and his wide experience and extensive acquaintance renders him the foremost auctioneer in his part of the state. He has proven that he can make this correction for Mr. Ferguson.

Mr. and Mrs. Pat Chandlee and their little son to Richmond, where he will be at the Cripple Children's Hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Goin went to hospital in Lynchburg for a little girl who is recovering from a nervous system.

Miss Verth Smith, delightfully attended the bridge club Monday evening at four tables on the second floor, two tables being invited by the guests.

Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Woolfool and their son have returned from prices possible.

match, getting the highest possible price.

In this edition we are glad to compliment W. D. Morgan upon his activity and efficient handling of the business of the firm. When in need of anything he will phone him.

Yorke Shop

MEN'S WEAR

With modern store in Lynchburg at 905 Main Street, is now offering the latest in men's clothing and furnishing establishments in this community for a number of years.

They sell high class merchandise and at prices that make real, true value, as among the wide variety and quality of goods they cater to every taste and Monday.

A. L. Stevenson has been named as the new pastor of the church now located at Chase City; his work is field agent of churches of Virginia. Mr. Stevenson spoke at the churches this week and expects to return on a campaign for the fall of children in a few days.

Miss Marion Wagner, of Albemarle, spent the week-end last week, after attending the annual conference at Randolph on Woman's College.

Mr. T. H. Agee wife and daughter, W. E. Agee and daughter Mildred, of Richmond, were kind guests of their parents and sister at the home of the late Clarence Agee, Jr., who been in Richmond Hospital er this establishment.

approach which takes well known knowledge has chosen its store with a view to give its customers the most valuable possible service. When it comes to ready-made clothing they have lines which are as complete as any trader's, and the particular that is most particular can find something suitable. But the success of a dealer in the price which he pays for his goods. But must be an efficient buyer, well versed in the state of the market and with a knowledge of the demands of his customers. This is a feature of the trade which the people of the South will find a speedy recovery is needed in our town and community.

Mrs. T. B. Pretlow is one of the finest Annie Mae Tanner, of Aker, Va., is visiting here, and Geo. A. Pretlow is at Spring Spring.

ANNOUNCEMENT

have purchased the stock building materials of the pomatox Construction Co. and will continue to operate at the same place with complete stock of lumber.

as made this store so popular.

[illegible]

erson, Mrs. Rosa Franklin, Mrs. Thos. Griffin, Mrs. H. T. Terry and Miss Lucy Rice.

Mrs. N. W. Van derheyden, Richmond, will be at the week-end with her home people.

The Prayer and Bible Circle met at the home of Miss Addie Foster, with target percentage of membership present. The book of Daniel was many thanks to Henry Leary, all present and the following will be present, including R. W. Vandenberg of Richmond, executive Secretary of Epworth League work. Mr. Vandenberg is an unusually attractive speaker and will be sure to fall to hear him with a treat.

Following the devotional and business sessions, there will be a fun and frolic hour in the basement.

On Monday, May 19, 1923, that being the next succeeding Rule Day after this order was entered, the following will be a copy hereof to each of the said non-resident defendants to the post office address given in the affidavit herein, and file a certificate of the filing in the paper in this case.

A copy—Teste:

C. W. SMITH, Clerk
A. H. Clement, p. q.

HEED the “Voice of the Road”

BEFORE

H. M. BURGE CO. Inc.,
Appomattox, Virginia.
GOOD YEAR